

I do NOT believe that the do not call list should be changed in anyway that will weaken it. It is nice to have time at home without having to deal with the annoying interruptions that tellemarketers cause! If anything we should definately strengthen the law to include cellular phones specially since so many of us use them as our home phonenumber.

Thank you